Erik Bergman appointed Head of Nordics at Natixis Corporate & Investment Banking

Natixis CIB is pleased to announce the appointment of Erik Bergman as Head of Nordics (Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Iceland & Finland), effective June 29, 2026. Erik reports to Alain Gallois, Global Head of Advisory & Coverage and Head of Europe. He joins Natixis CIB's Europe Executive Committee.

Erik will oversee the development and management of clients including corporates, banks, asset managers, insurance companies and pension funds, across the Nordic region. His career across several international banking institutions has given him extensive knowledge of Northern European markets, as well as key sectors such as defense, energy, the environmental transition, natural resources, automotives, and new mobility. This expertise aligns perfectly with Natixis CIB's strategic priorities.

Biography of Erik Bergman

Erik Bergman has more than 25 years' experience in the Nordic corporate and Investment banking sector.

Prior to joining Natixis CIB, Erik built his experience with international banks such as HSBC, Societe Generale, JPMorgan and BNP Paribas.

Throughout his career he has helped build franchises, had strategic client responsibilities, and held country leadership roles. He has also held board member roles and been part of a European board for Corporates.
