Natixis CIB announces Eric Hamou as new Co-Head of Natixis Partners

Natixis Corporate & Investment Banking (Natixis CIB), the corporate and investment banking arm of Groupe BPCE, today announced the appointment of Eric Hamou as Co-Head of Natixis Partners, alongside Yann Le Fur, effective September 1st.

Eric's appointment will contribute to the continued development of Natixis Partners, the M&A advisory subsidiary of Natixis CIB in France, and its ability to support clients with their strategic priorities. His deep expertise with the midcap segment in Europe and with Private Equity funds, will complement Natixis CIB's existing capabilities in these areas.

Mohamed Kallala, CEO of Natixis, in charge of Corporate & Investment Banking and Member of the Executive Management Committee of BPCE, commented: "We are delighted to welcome Eric Hamou as Co-Head of Natixis Partners. His M&A advisory expertise, alongside that of Yann Le Fur, will be a valuable addition to the team and will further contribute to the development of our M&A advisory franchise. His arrival reflects our broader ambition to develop our advisory expertise. We continue to invest in our M&A capabilities across our core sectors and markets. By capturing major growth opportunities in areas where we have distinctive capabilities – notably Infrastructure, Financial Institutions, Private Equity, and Tech – we will further deepen the value we bring to our clients through our high-quality, tailored advice."

Natixis CIB's global M&A network comprises more than 600 professionals across 4 dedicated Natixis CIB teams and nine specialized boutiques.
